

BEHIND THE SCENES

New P&D Website

We're excited to announce our brand-new P&D website where you'll find the Middle School Showcase NOW AVAILABLE for your viewing pleasure. Check out the various projects submitted throughout the year. This is also where you'll find the Year-in-Review video—available later this week—which is a compilation of artwork, photos and more. For all of the year-end celebrations, visit and bookmark <https://www.pdocsashowcase.com/> now!

Note—the website is viewed best on a computer, though it may be accessed on a mobile device.

P&D Awards Night & Flashlight Ceremony

THIS SATURDAY, May 30, at 5:30 pm is our livestreamed P&D Awards Night & Flashlight Ceremony! It will be a combination of live presentation from Symphony Hall and pre-recorded videos. You'll definitely want to tune in to the celebration at the end of a wild year as we recognize student achievement and send off our seniors! <https://www.pdocsashowcase.com/awards-night-flashlight-ceremony>

Captain's Corner via Zoom—last couple of opportunities!

Open to all students on Fridays from 1:30 pm to 2:00 pm or as long as there are questions, Captain & Miss V will be available for “open office” time. Pop in to chat about anything—they'd love to connect with you!

Unfortunately, due to Disney policy, the master classes with Dan Shulz and Mike Williams will not be available for rebroadcast.

CSArts Academy Summer Enhancement Opportunities for OCSA Students

Interested in learning more about editing your own movies? Want to learn special effects makeup techniques? In need of some creative writing tools?

OCSA is offering online summer enhancement classes for incoming and current OCSA students to allow students to build their skills, challenge their creativity, and expand their foundational art knowledge. Designed by our conservatory directors and instructors, these unique classes provide opportunities for conservatory-specific experiences in addition to chances for students to explore disciplines outside of their own conservatory.

For more information about these classes, please contact academy@csarts.net.

ATI Summer Program Opportunity

This summer the Academy of Thought and Industry (ATI), a national network of middle and high schools, is thrilled to announce The Gen Z Summer Program. This program is designed to support adolescents in grades 6–12 in pursuing their own chosen goals, with a heavy emphasis on planning and executing offline activities.

Run by ATI educators, the program offers collaborative online learning and support 3 hours per week for 6 weeks. Each week provides two 30-minute individual coaching calls, a one hour facilitated online small group learning discussion and a one hour online skill-building workshop. Students can choose a coach with matching areas of interest and expertise to help them meet their goals.

For more information or to enroll, visit <https://www.genzprogram.com/>.
