MUSICAL THEATRE CONSERVATORY (GRADES 7-12) In-Person Placement Activity

Placement Activity:

The Musical Theatre Conservatory will hold a “Day in the Life of MT” In-Person Placement Activity.

At the Placement Activity, applicants will experience a “Day in the Life of MT,” where students will take a movement/dance master class with MT faculty as well as sing within a group setting. Please note that this Placement Activity is mandatory and will give applicants an idea of what a Musical Theatre training will consist of.

What to Prepare and Bring for the Placement Activity:

1. Please be dressed in clothing that you can move in and bring appropriate dance flats or sneakers (dance shoes are preferred, but please have close-toed shoes).
2. Please prepare and bring one vocal selection, up-tempo or ballad (16-32 bars, approximately 45 seconds). Singing with a track is preferred, but a cappella singing will be accepted. Musical Theatre material is preferred, but you may sing material outside of the Broadway landscape.

Note: There will not be a provided accompanist, but students may accompany themselves. No guest accompanists will be allowed. Please bring your backing track on a mobile device.

3. Please prepare one of the monologues provided to be performed. It should be memorized. Please do not prepare your own monologue. Select one from the list provided.

- Singer’s Musical Theatre Anthology Series by various authors
- The Big Book of Broadway by Hal Leonard Publishing
- Broadway Showstoppers by Hal Leonard Publishing
