THE NANCY EGAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Nancy Egan served as an Executive Assistant and Director of Admissions for the Orange County School of the Arts since the school opened in 1987. She was a cornerstone to the school's success for more than 20 years. Her talent, wisdom, dedication and friendship profoundly and forever transformed the school, our students, and all who had the privilege of working with her. She was known to her family and friends as a loving and intrepid wife, mother, grandmother and champion of all things furry! She also had a deep passion for supporting the aspiring, young student artists in our local community. The recipient will receive a $2,500 scholarship grant. This annual scholarship was set up in her memory to help high-achieving senior students of the Orange County School of the Arts cover the costs of pursuing a higher education in the field of their choice.
