TODAY'S ACTIVITIES

NAVINANCE PRESENTATIONS: Junior Naviance Presentations with the school counselors continue today in literature classes and will run through October 7.

VOTER REGISTRATION: It's time to make your voice heard and register or pre-register to vote. The voter registration team will be helping you register today and tomorrow in your social science class if you’re 16 and older. Be prepared with either the last four digits of your social security number or your California driver’s license number. It’s your turn, your voice, and your vote!

STUDENT INFORMATION

CLUB RUSH: Make new friends! Find your people! Club Rush is tomorrow and Friday. Community service and arts clubs will have booths on 10th Street during lunch tomorrow. Fandoms, political, lifestyle and more will have booths on Friday. Don’t miss this great opportunity to learn about OCSA’s many clubs.

MIDDLE SCHOOL DANCE: Tickets for the “Jukebox Jammin’” middle school dance are on sale now through Friday, October 7. The dance will take place on Friday, October 11 from 1:45-3:45 p.m. in the Center for the Arts Event Center. Tickets are $10 and include snacks, a photo booth, a ’50s costume contest, and dancing! Tickets for the dance can be purchased at online only at MySchoolBucks.com. Students not picked up by 4:30 will be escorted to Homework Club.

HOMECOMING: Homecoming ticket sales continue today on MySchoolBucks.com! Rock and roll at the Homecoming “Rock Invasion” on October 12! Ticket sales end at 11:59 p.m. on Monday, October 7. Guest passes are in the Student Services rack and at MySchoolBucks.com. The deadline for guest passes is Wednesday, October 2 by 2:05 p.m. to room T108.

DRAGON CHALLENGE: Join us this Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Webb Theatre for the Dragon Challenge sponsored by the Dragon Kim Foundation. The Dragon Challenge is a competition similar to Shark Tank where four teams of high school activists will compete for a chance to receive $5,000 to fund their service project. Come cheer on two of our very own OCSA students as they compete, and also learn about the Dragon Kim Fellowship so that you can apply this year. Tickets are available at https://dragonkimfoundation.
CSF: California Scholarship Federation (CSF) applications are available in the Student Services rack for students in grades 10-12 and are due to Student Services by Friday, October 4. Students in 9th grade can apply for CSF in the spring. After applying you must attend the first CSF meeting to confirm your membership. CSF recognizes and encourages academic achievement and community service. Membership is for one semester, so students must reapply each semester.

ACTORS SHOWCASE: A second day of auditions has been added for Actors Showcase. If you are serious about pursuing a career in acting, sign up to audition for industry professional and casting director Rick Messina for selection in this year’s Actors Industry Showcase. If cast, this showcase will provide students the opportunity to perform for agents, casting directors, managers, directors and other established working professionals in film and television. Rehearsals begin in January and the showcase will take place in Los Angeles on Wednesday, April 29. Open to 7th-12 grades for all conservatories and programs, selection will be based solely on the expertise of Mr. Messina. Auditions will take place this Saturday, September 28 starting at 9 a.m. in DMS 218. Audition sign-ups are on the School of Theatre callboard. Email katy.jacoby@ocsarts.net with questions.

GALA AUDITIONS: Calling students from select grades and all conservatories! Gala 2020 audition information and applications are available online at www.ocsarts.net/GalaAudition! Gala 2020 will take place on Saturday, March 14 at Hotel Irvine. Gala is the school’s largest fundraising event of the year - don’t miss your opportunity to be a part of this spectacular show!
- Vocal - Monday, October 21, 5-9 p.m., Annex 18 (Grades 9-12)
- Specialty Act - Thursday, October 24, 5-6 p.m., DMS 115 (Grades 7-12)
- Dance - Thursday, October 24, 5-7, DMS 114 (Grades 9-12)
- Greeter - Tuesday, October 29, 5-9 p.m., DMS 114 (Grades 9-12)

CONSERVATORY INFORMATION

FILM FESTIVAL: The Film & Television Conservatory “Back to School Film Festival” this Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m. in Symphony Hall. Don’t miss films by OCSA students, along with documentaries made on the FTV and CAH trip to Spain.

READ-A-THON: Join the Creative Writing Conservatory for their annual Read-a-Thon and Film Night this Friday, September 27 when they read the cult fantasy classic, Howl’s Moving Castle, followed by a screening of the Studio Ghibli film. This free event starts at 2 p.m., and the film will air at 7 p.m.

BOOK SALE: The Creative Writing Conservatory invites you to their book sale today during lunch and Block 7 on the steps of Symphony Hall.