STUDENT INFORMATION

HOBY: Sophomores! Do you want to represent OCSA as an ambassador at the Hugh O’Brian Youth (HOBY) State Leadership Seminar? The seminar provides unique leadership training designed for sophomores. Applications will be available at a meeting tomorrow at lunch in room T104. The application deadline is Friday, November 8 in T101. HOBY information is available at www.hoby.org/lead.

SOPHOMORE NAVIANCE PRESENTATIONS: Sophomores will begin Naviance Presentations with the school counselors tomorrow through October 30 in literature classes. Sophomores will receive further training in Naviance, OCSA’s college and career readiness online tool, focusing on career and college exploration.

YALE SUMMER PROGRAM: Sophomores and juniors! Are you interested in spending a summer at the Yale Young Global Scholars Program? Come learn about the program from a student ambassador this Wednesday, October 23 at lunch in DMS 222.

DIPLOMA NAME VERIFICATION: Diploma name verification continues today for seniors! Come to Student Services to verify and sign for your legal name for your diploma and the name to be used at the graduation ceremony. The verification deadline is Friday, October 25.

LETTERS OF REC: Seniors, just a reminder that if you need a letter of recommendation for a December 1 college application deadline, you should request those from counselors and teachers by Thursday, October 31.

AP TEST DEADLINE: The last day to purchase and register AP Exams is this Thursday, October 31 at MySchoolBucks.com. Students must also sign in to their College Board student account at myap.collegeboard.org to indicate whether or not they are taking exams for each AP course being taken.

SHUTTLE DEPARTURE CHANGE: Due to changes in the Metrolink train schedule, the OCSA departure schedule has changed for the Metrolink shuttle on Fridays and other 1:30 p.m. dismissal days. The revised schedule is as follows:

- Rossmoor/Rush Park Bus - Departs OCSA for Los Alamitos/Rossmoor at 1:45 p.m.
- Metrolink Shuttle - Departs at 2 p.m. Students must remain on campus until the shuttle departs. Students will begin loading the buses at 1:50 p.m. and must show their Metrolink shuttle pass in order to board the bus.

POSTER CONTEST: The Orange County Department of Education invites you to participate in their 2020 Imagination Celebration Poster Exhibition and Contest. The submission deadline is January 22 at https://bit.ly/2nudI3x. Come to Student Services for information.

VIOLET RICHARDSON AWARD: Applications are available in Student Services for the Soroptimist Violet Richardson award. Young Women between the ages of 14 and 18 with significant volunteer accomplishments are encouraged to apply. The application deadline is January 15.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Come to Student Services for information on the following scholarships:

- Horatio Alger - Seniors with critical financial need are encouraged to apply for the Horatio Alger Scholarship. Applicants will be considered for a range of scholarship programs offered by the Association. Applications are due this Friday, October 25 at scholars.horatioalger.org.
- Edison Scholars - The application period for the 2020 Edison Scholars is now open! Each year, Edison International awards $40,000 college STEM scholarships to 30 seniors. The deadline to apply is December 16 at edisonscholars.com.
- Asian and Pacific Islander American Scholarships (APIA) - APIA Scholars provides scholarships to underserved APIA students. Apply by January 22 at apiascholars.org.

CONSERVATORY INFORMATION

PUMPKIN AUCTION: The Visual Arts Conservatory Painted Pumpkin Patch will be displayed tomorrow, Wednesday, and Thursday in the Tower lobby. Over 75 one-of-a-kind faux pumpkins created by our students and staff from multiple conservatories will be featured. Be sure to view the display and bid on these amazing pumpkins! The auction closes on Thursday at 2:10 p.m. This year, at the request of our students, half of the funds raised will be donated to OCSA teacher Kelly Cirigliano’s family fund to help with medical costs. To learn more about this cause, go to http://trentoncirigliano.com.
