1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program funded:

The OCSA Production Department's mission is to provide professional quality production management, technical support, and mentorship to students in a positive, creative, and nurturing environment, with the goal of encouraging and preparing students for a career in the arts. The OCSA production department serves as the backbone of management and execution of all performances, showcases, masterclasses and special events. With a student body of 2,400 and over 300 performances and events each year, the production department oversees all aspects of production staff management, technical execution and ensures that safety regulations are met. In addition, the team strives to inspire the next generation of theater artists and technicians by providing a creative and positive work environment that embraces collaboration, clear and respectful communication, and solution-oriented problem solving.
